WORKING FOR HARMONY

States That Nothing Now Stands
In Way of Harmonious Support of Platform as to Revision

HOUSE DEMOCRATS IN CAUCUS

WASHINGTON, APRIL 9.—In the interest of success for the Democratic tariff revision bill, President Wilson today stepped over another obstacle in the way of perfect harmony between the white house and the directing forces of congress. For the second successive day, he left his own offices in the white house and journeyed to the capitol, this time for an hour and a half conference with Democratic members of the senate finance committee. At its conclusion the president stated frankly to newspapermen that he and members of the senate were agreed that nothing stood in the way of harmonious support of the "party platform," as to revision. The senate situation was canvassed in detail at the conference. The dangers that might threaten a single bill should the opponents of free sugar and free wool combine in sufficient strength to endanger the Democratic majority in the senate were discussed, but no agreement was reached that binds the senate leaders to any definite line of action.

House Democrats in Caucus.

While the senate conference was in progress the full Democratic membership of the house was in caucus at the other end of the capitol, discussing the details of the tariff bill, the first schedule of which was agreed to without change. Representative Underwood, the Democratic leader of the house, stated at the conclusion of the day's caucus that the tariff revision would go through the house as a single bill.

The president again ignored long standing precedent in seeking a legislative conference with the capitol. He met the senators in the president's room, near the senate chamber, where presidents have long come to sign the last bills of a dying congress but which never before had been used for such a purpose of today's within the knowledge of senate historians.

Talks to Newspapermen.

At the end of the conference the president with Democratic simplicity stopped in the senate corridor to tell newspapermen the results of the meeting. Members of the senate finance committee had agreed that the president should be the only spokesman for the congress.

"I hope the senators and representatives will permit me to come here frequently and confer with them in a way to save their time and mine," he said. "At our conference this afternoon we were of course discussing the tariff. The net result is we don't see any difficulty about standing together on any sort of party program."

The president was asked if the conference had decided whether the tariff would be revised in a single bill or schedule by schedule.

"Oh—that's a matter for the other end of the capitol," he answered, pointing to the house.

As a result of today's conference, which is to be resumed later, it is believed that the president will not object if the senate leaders determine it is essential the tariff be split up into a number of single measures. Extreme simplicity surrounded the president's arrival and departure from the capitol. The senate was deserted and but few people witnessed the coming and going of the executive or realized the significance of the precedent he had established in visiting the capitol for legislative conferences. Discussion of the tariff in the house Democratic caucus may continue through the rest of the week.

Chemical Schedule Completed.

The chemical schedule was completed today without the change of a letter, though numerous amendments were offered, and the consideration of schedule B (earthenware and glassware) was begun.

Tomorrow the house, meeting at noon, will adjourn in time to permit the caucus to resume by 2 o'clock.

The bowling over of all amendments to the chemical schedule, the council of Mr. Underwood and other leaders for party harmony with a view to united today on a single tariff revision bill and the naming of necessary working committees—ways and means, rules, accounts, mileage and enrolled bills—featured today's session. Representative Brunsard of Louisiana announced he was prepared to present at the right time a plea for adequate protection of sugar. Representative Metz of New York urged that the ten percent duty on indigo be stricken out for the benefit of the textile indus-

POPE PIUS IS NOT IN IMMEDIATE DANGER

OFFICIAL REPORTS DECLARE HIS CONDITION IS NOT GRAVE

Physician Gives Assurance That Illness is Running Normal Course and Guarantees Pontiff's Recovery Barring Complications.

ROME, APRIL 9.—All official reports regarding the condition of Pope Pius X., agree that his condition is not grave and that there is no immediate danger. Anxiety, however, continues owing to the weakness of the pontiff and the action of his heart which is in need of stimulation.

The attending physicians found that the condition of the pope had improved during the night and this improvement was maintained throughout the day, although the temperature showed a slight increase. Again this evening his temperature rose slightly, but the difference from that of the afternoon was hardly perceptible. Prof. Marchisavi visited the pope only twice today, morning and evening, and expressed satisfaction at the course the illness is taking. The pope's sisters and niece spent much time at the bedside, and when not there were kept constantly informed by telephone as to the progress of events. The pope has expressed terror at what the newspapers are capable of inventing concerning his relapse. He is being watched turn by his valet and his secretaries, Managers Bressan and Pescini, and the Chemist Proscodimo is also in close attendance.

Danger Not Imminent.

It was reported that Cardinal Katschthaler, archbishop of Salzburg, had postponed his departure as he wished to be in Rome in case of eventualities, but this proved not to be true as he left here today for his home; and this is considered another evidence that the pontiff has really improved or at least that the danger is not imminent. The aspect of the immense square in front of St. Peter's today recalled the scenes during the illness of Pope Leo XIII., but instead of a burning July sun as in 1903, there was a downpour of rain. This did not prevent thousands of pilgrims from gathering and gazing with great anxiety at the three windows of the third floor of the apostolic palace where the pope lies, or from directing sympathetic glances at the little house in the square below where the sisters of the pope occupy a modest apartment on the top floor.

Prof. Marchisavi, in a statement to the Associated Press tonight expressed himself as highly indignant at the exaggerated reports that had been cried.

He gave solemn assurances that the pope's illness was running a perfectly normal course, and said that if no complications arose he would guarantee that the pontiff would be convalescent within a week. Dr. Marchisavi spoke with the greatest apparent sincerity.

Perfect calm prevailed at the vatican this evening and the normal routine seemingly had been resumed. Dr. Amici retired for a considerable time to his own room previous to going to the ante-room, where the pope occupied by the pope, for the night. It was announced that the patient was enjoying a peaceful sleep.

ROBERT M'MURDY CHOSEN HEAD OF STATE BAR ASSOCIATION

Justice Carter of Illinois Supreme Court Addresses Body
in Session in Springfield.

Springfield, Ill., April 9.—Robert M'Murdy of Chicago was today elected president of the Illinois State Bar association. The other officers elected are:

Edward C. Kramer, East St. Louis.

James M. Sheehan, Chicago.

William F. Bundy, Centralia, vice-presidents.

John B. Voight, Mattoon, secretary-treasurer.

William E. Higgins of Topeka, Kansas, addressed the association on reformatory court proceeding urging legislation to lessen the delay in court trials.

Orin Carter, justice of the state supreme court and J. A. Todd of the University of Illinois addressed the state society of criminal law and criminology on criminal statistics in Illinois. The society is meeting in connection with the state association.

tries, whose manufactures were affected by heavy cuts in textile revision. This was beaten 54 to 102. Representative Webb of North Carolina advocated free castor oil as the poor man's greatest medicine.

Representative Fowler of Illinois wanted linseed oil free and Representative Parrott of Georgia wanted free phosphoric acid in the interest of cheap fertilizers.

Representative L'Engle of Florida suggested and announced he would repeat the suggestion with every session that there should be an internal revenue tax equal to the amount of the duty assessed against factories of all kinds that employ foreign labor, children under 16 years of age, women, or that failed to pay a living wage to employees. This was passed over.

BIG LEAGUE PENNANT RACE ON IN EARNEST

FORMAL "OPENINGS" WILL BE HELD IN SEVEN CITIES TODAY

Highlanders Reported Seriously Handicapped by Accidents to Several of the Team's Mainstays—
Tyrus Cobb Still a Holdout.

NEW YORK, APRIL 9.—Firing will begin along practically the entire line to tomorrow in the major league baseball circuits. The preliminary gun in Brooklyn to day was set off with a considerable boom, but the big artillery is due to get into action now. There will be formal "openings" in seven cities tomorrow afternoon and the race for the National and American league pennants will be on in earnest.

Philadelphia, which by virtue of its victory over Brooklyn in the latter's new field in the only game of the day, holds undisputed possession of first place in the National league race, will have Brooklyn for an opponent again tomorrow, but with the scene of the encounter changed to the Quaker City. In New York the Champion Giants will meet the Boston Red Sox. The Cincinnati field has been adjourned too early for play and the season there will not open until Saturday.

There was no preliminary opening in the American league, and the first games in that circuit are scheduled for tomorrow. The Boston Red Sox, present world's champions, play on their home grounds with the Philadelphia Athletics, while New York and Washington will meet in the latter city. In the other half of the circuit the openings will be at Cleveland and St. Louis, with Chicago playing in the former and Detroit in the latter city.

Aside from the enthusiasm incident to the annual opening of the season's play, varied reasons are responsible for especial interest in the showing several teams will make in to tomorrow's contests. Boston and Philadelphia are admittedly strong rivals for the American league championship, both teams are in the field and a notable struggle between them is anticipated. The form which the National league champions will show in their game with Stallions' men here is also a matter of interest. Johnny Evers will make his debut as a big league manager at the head of the Cubs in the game with St. Louis.

Frank LeRoy Chance's New Yorks pursued as in former seasons by the "jinx" with accidents to several of the team's mainstays already recorded, will go into its game with Washington seriously handicapped.

Detroit will be without the services of its brightest star, Tyrus Cobb, who is still a holdout.

OFFERS CONCESSIONS TO AVERT STRIKES

Telephone Operators' Union of Boston
Make Demands of New England Telephone Co.

Boston, April 9.—The New England Telephone and Telegraph company tonight offered to the executive committee of the Telephone Operators' union a proposition embracing concessions on several points in answer to the union's demands. This offer was made during a series of conferences arranged in an effort to avert the threatened strike was made the basis of renewed conferences.

The company's concessions are understood to have included the following:

A small increase in wages.

The establishment of 8½ hours as the maximum working day.

The re-adjustment of the so-called split-rate system.

The appointment of a board of three operators to hear all complaints by operators and to report to the company officials.

A long discussion followed the presentation of these proposals, the operators' committee holding out for further concessions.

A promise of later consideration of the full wage demands is understood to have been held out. All day efforts were continued by various public bodies to bring about a settlement with but little success.

The waiters' union threatened to call out all members in hotels and restaurants where strike-breakers may be quartered.

300 Chicago Strike-breakers.

Chicago, April 9.—Three hundred Chicago telephone operators boarded special cars tonight for Boston to act as strike-breakers in the threatened emergency. They were recruited from the ranks of the "extra" and "waiting" lists.

Five Go From Elgin.

Elgin, Ill., April 9.—Five young women telephone operators left here today enroute to Boston, where it is understood they will take the place of union operators if the latter strike.

AT THE GRAND.

Billy Dooley is doing some clever vaudeville work at the Grand and will appear there today, Friday and Saturday. He is known as the Scotch cowboy and has several specialties. The opera house space advertised elsewhere in this paper gives through error today, Tuesday and Wednesday as the dates for his appearance.

WEDNESDAY IN CONGRESS.

Senate.

Met at noon.

Senator Chilton introduced bill to fix a minimum wage for women.

A bill for inspection of coal mines, introduced by Senator Works.

Senator Bacon introduced bill for purchase of homes for American diplomats.

A bill to prohibit senators and representatives from acting as counsel for interstate commerce corporations introduced by Senator Borah.

Foreign relations committee approved McLean resolution requiring President Wilson to propose an international convention for mitigatory bird protection.

A tariff board of five members is provided in bill, reintroduced by Senator Lodge. A bill to prevent interstate railroads from limiting their liabilities on lost shipments, introduced by Senator Cummins.

Finance committee members were to discuss tariff with President Wilson at 3 p. m., in president's room at capitol.

Adjourned at 12:40 until noon Saturday.

House.

Not in session, meets Thursday at noon.

Ways and means committee decided to hold meetings daily during discussion of tariff bill in house.

Democrats met in caucus.

BELGIUM WORKMEN MAY STRIKE MONDAY

BETWEEN 300,000 AND 400,000 MEN
EXPECTED TO LAY DOWN TOOLS

Many Predict That Strike Will Prove Turning Point in History of Country and of Great Importance in Political Changes.

BRUSSELS, APRIL 9.—The last hope of the socialists of intervention by the king to prevent the general strike called to begin next Monday to enforce the granting by the government of manhood suffrage instead of the present plural voting now appears to have disappeared. It is pointed out that such action in the existing circumstances would be unconstitutional and would be regarded as a rebuke to the clerical as a coup d'etat.

That the government will now accept a compromise is also highly improbable, judging from the active military preparations which are going on. The orders for the departure of a large body of troops for camp have been countermanded and the troops will be distributed among the various industrial centers to safeguard the gas and electric plants, the railroads tunnels and bridges. Large forces of gendarmes also have been drafted and will be stationed in places regarded by the government as danger points.

Strike to Begin Monday.

It is expected that between 300,000 and 400,000 workmen will lay down their tools Monday. Several thousand women and children of these workmen have already been sent to the country where it is proposed they will remain until the crisis is passed.

Many Belgians believe that this strike will prove a turning point in the history of Belgium; that it will result in political changes of incalculable importance, and some even predict a revolution, the separation of the Walloon and Flemish provinces or a dynastic crisis.

The primary cause of the movement was the defeat of the liberal and Socialist coalition in the parliamentary elections of last year. The Socialists congress, specially summoned June 30th of that year, decided to make use of a general strike if all other means of obtaining manhood suffrage failed. Before resorting to that measure a general suffrage was introduced in parliament by Socialists and supported by the liberals.

The country is in complete gloom and it is felt that every person is likely to suffer in some way in whatever position she may occupy.

Make Second Strike Vote.

Steps were taken on all sides to try and settle matters.

The burgomasters of the nine principal cities were received by the premier who, while declaring that no government worthy of the name would allow itself to be intimidated by the threats of the mob, said that if the menace of a general strike were removed he would be disposed to talk.

The Socialist national committee thereupon cancelled its previous decision and Belgium breathed anew.

The government, however, made no move and the Socialist congress at Easter again voted the general strike. The country is in complete gloom and it is felt that every person is likely to suffer in some way in whatever position she may occupy.

INSANE PATIENT MURDERED.

Kankakee, Ill., April 9.—Victor H. Hedquist, a patient admitted to the Kankakee state hospital from Cook county, was murdered on the institution grounds late Tuesday afternoon by another patient, Seymour Peck, also a Cook county patient. The two men with fourteen patients were engaged digging a trench when Peck attacked Hedquist and killed him with a shovel. Two attendants in charge of the gang did not see the murder.

Mayor Harrison Urges Presentation of a Bill Designed to Relieve Chicago From Present Financial Difficulties—Other Springfield News.

SPRINGFIELD, APRIL 9.—A resolution creating a committee of five to investigate the management of affairs and the financial status of the college of physicians and surgeons of Chicago and the recent action of the trustees of the University of Illinois in accepting the institution as a purported gift, was presented in the house and referred.

The senate committee reported favorably the Chicago outer harbor bill, amended so that it would not invalidate the agreement between the city and the Illinois Central regarding riparian rights along the lake front.

Mayor Harrison and Corporation Counsel Sexton to day appeared before the senate judiciary committee and urged the presentation of a bill designed to relieve Chicago from the present financial difficulties. Action on the measure was postponed until next Wednesday. Two contests were dismissed by the house elections committee. They were the contests of William H. Sarver against Andrew Lovejoy and others from the tenth and of Frank F. Butzow against William H. Dunn, Daniel O'Connell and others in the twentieth district.

County Option Measure Referred.

Local option legislation at the present session of the legislature was given a blow late this afternoon when the county option measure, by a vote of 7 to 6, was referred to a sub-committee of three members of the senate committee on license and miscellany following a hearing which lasted nearly the entire afternoon and which was marked by frequent and heated remarks by friends and foes of the proposed legislation. Senator Denver of Chicago dropped in to the committee room just as the roll was being called and prevented a tie vote by voting for the motion.

House Committees.

Speaker William McKinley today in the house announced the appointment of the following ten additional house committees:

State and Municipal Civil Service Reform.

Hull, chairman; Pervier, German, Kurch, Dickman, R. E. Wilson, Province, Catlin, Lyon, Devine, Kassarman, Schubert, Costello, Dillon, Graham, Gillespie, Shaver, Thomas Curran, Miller, Rothschild, Weber, Williamson and Grunau.

STATE RESTS CASE IN PFANSCHMIDT TRIAL

COURT RECESSES DAY FOR ATTOR-NEYS TO PREPARE DEFENSE

Prisoner's Aged Grandfather Occupies the Stand as a Witness For Prosecution—People Curious as to What Defense's Tactics Will Be.

QUINCY, ILL., April 9.—At 4:15 this afternoon, after nine days of steady presentation of evidence, the state rested its case against Ray Pfanschmidt, the 21 years old youth charged with the murder of his father, mother, sister and Miss Emma Kaempen, a school teacher, who was boarding in the Pfanschmidt home. In order to give the attorneys for the defense ample time to prepare their case, Judge Williams granted a day's vacation and the court will not convene until 9 o'clock Friday morning.

The defense insists that its case will not take nearly as long as the state's presentation as did that of the state and that by Wednesday of next week the case will be ready for the jury.

Prisoner's Grandfather Testifies.

One of the most dramatic incidents in the entire trial was the appearance as a witness for the state this afternoon of C. C. Pfanschmidt, who father of Charles Pfanschmidt, who was murdered. He is over 80 years old. He told the jury that it was he who ordered the bloodhounds so that the persons guilty of the murder of his son and family might be traced. These same bloodhounds followed the tracks to the bunk in the tent of the grandson and gave the first strong suspicion which led to further investigation of the connection of Ray Pfanschmidt with the murder.

Another witness testifying shortly before adjournment was George Vasen, a dealer in electrical supplies. He testified that not long before the Pfanschmidt fire, he sold the defendant a pocket flashlight. At that time Ray also inquired in regard to fuses to ignite powder and Mr. Vasen carefully explained to Ray how to ignite powder with electric fuses.

It will be remembered that a clock was found in the ruins of the Pfanschmidt fire with the hands wound with wire. A point introduced in order to emphasize the fact that the youth's crime was made by the state in the testimony of Henry Sprick, cashier of the State Street bank. Mr. Sprick testified that Ray Pfanschmidt has overdrawn his account heavily and several times the cashier had remonstrated with a young man and had written letters to both the young man and his father.

Curious Regarding Defense's Course.

There is a great deal of interest in the county as to what the tactics of the defense will be. All are curious to know what course the defense will pursue to meet the evidence of the tracks in the barnyard, the bloody clothes and testimony of witnesses who identified Ray's peculiar undercoat buggy and more peculiar sorrel team, at a late hour on the Friday and Saturday nights when Ray claims he was in bed in his tent.

ATTEMPT TO DESTROY Y. M. C. A.

Watchman Discovers Gas Jets in Room Based on and One Burning in Council Bluffs Building.

Council Bluffs, Iowa, April 10.—It became known today that the fourth attempt within three weeks to destroy the Y. M. C. A. building was made last Sunday night. A portion of the basement of the building is used as a lodge room by the G. A. R. Late Sunday night the watchman discovered that every gas jet in this room had been opened except one which was lighted and kept burning. Three attempts have been made to burn the building, which is valued at $100,000. There is no clue to the incendiary.

Twenty-two young men have sleeping apartments on the upper floors of the buildings.

SHOT IN SALOON BRAWL.

Kankakee, Ill., April 9.—Charles Richardson, 60 years of age, was shot and perhaps fatally injured in the Matt Gerdech saloon in Bradley late Tuesday night by Lester McClure, aged 26 years as the result of a quarrel.

C. & E. L. FINED $10,000.

Chicago, April 9.—The Chicago & Eastern Illinois railway company was fined $10,000 today by Federal Judge Carpenter for violating the law prohibiting the working of employees more than sixteen hours. The company confessed to 100 offenses which all were committed last November.

MISSISSIPPI BREAKS LEEVE NEAR MEMPHIS

Water Floods Wilson, Ark.,
Due to Alleged Desertion of Levee by Laborers

LEVEES ARE WEAKENING

Desperate Fight Is Being Waged
To Hold Turbulent Waters—
No Loss of Life Reported

OHIO STATIONARY AT CAIRO

MEMPHIS, TENN., APRIL 9.—After a day of torrential rains and a strong wind one levee gave way before the flood waters of the Mississippi today and at a half a dozen other points a desperate fight is being waged to hold the turbulent waters within bounds, with odds favoring the water. Admittedly the levees are weakening. The water already at an unprecedented height, is pounding against the dikes with increasing force and whether the embankments can longer withstand the pressure is problematical.

The levee near Wilson, Ark., went out late this evening, said to be due to the desertion of about 150 negro laborers today. With a roar that could be heard for a mile or more about 100 feet of the earthen revetment collapsed and it was by a narrow margin that the workers along the levee who kept up the fight to the last minute reached places of safety. When the country was buried through the rapidly widening gap frail negro cabins were tossed about as so many playthings, trees were swept down and carried away, but so far as can be ascertained, all inhabitants in the immediate proximity of the break got away in time. At a late hour tonight the gap was about 300 feet in width and the broken ends of the levee were crumbling fast.

Water Running Over Levee.

The manager of the Cumberland Telephone company at Osceola, Ark., at 6:30 o'clock tonight reported water running over the levee at that point and the embankment in imminent danger of collapse. The situation also is reported critical at Luxora, Wilson, Mound City and Wyanoke, Ark.

All railway traffic over the lines entering Memphis from the west, except on the St. Louis and San Francisco line, was suspended today, when water began running over the main lines at Bridge Junction so deep it put the fires out on the engines. Many telegraph wires went down.

River Practically Stationary.

Cairo, Ill., April 9.—The Ohio river has not fallen appreciably since morning, the gauge still registering 54.6 feet.

Adjutant General Frank S. Dickson on the steamer Illinois left this morning for the Wabash river bottoms with food and clothes for the 30,000 flood refugees in that section. Express companies are carrying free supplies for high water sufferers. A picture show that

Commissioner Brennan Gives Points In Favor of Light Bond Issue

Every day citizens are visiting the municipal light plant and are looking over the plans for rebuilding which the city commissioners have prepared. Judging by the comments and observations made after looking at the old plant and studying plans for the new, votes favorable to the bond issue are being made every day. In talking about the light plant improvements projected and the coming election Commissioner Brennan said yesterday: "We are having visitors here now every day and we are doing our best to make it clear to all comers exactly what we propose to do and what the present conditions of the plant are. I don't think that my judgment is biased on the matter when I say that I believe the public is looking with more favor on the proposition each day. Any visitor, no matter whether he understands machinery or not, or has any knowledge of electricity or of the general methods of electric lighting, can see after a few minutes inspection of the plant how out of date the equipment is. He can see how hampered the quarters are and how ready to appreciate the difficulties of trying to light a city with lamps of a pattern so old that they are no longer manufactured."

"If there has been any doubt in the minds of visitors as to whether the improvement would cost the amount of money estimated I believe that such doubts have been dispelled after learning more about the plans and getting a clearer insight as to the machinery to be purchased and the changes in the general plant to be made."

Would Not Increase Taxes.

"Another thing which is making friends for the proposition is the fact that a clearer understanding exists as to what the bond issue really means. The issue of $50,000 in bonds, bearing interest at 4 1/2 per cent and payable in 20 yearly installments will not add a cent to the taxes of individual citizens. The fact is that the city is now levying taxes up to the legal limit and for the past year or two whatever surplus has been raised by bond tax has been devoted to the refunding of bonds. Bonds in the sum of $10,000 were paid off last year and a like sum will be paid in the coming July. This has been possible through the sinking fund and bond taxes and it is owing to the fact that the city's bonded indebtedness has been reduced that the present bond issue can be asked for and the bonds legally issued, if the people so decide. The bonds, if issued, will be registered, which means in effect that payment for such bonds will come out of the city's taxes each year before the taxes are paid over by the sheriff and collector to the city. The fact I say that there will be no increase in taxes is having weight with some citizens who feel that they would not favor anything which did occasion an increase."

The Excess Power.

"There have been some people who felt and no doubt with all sincerity, that the commissioners had plans for too much excess power. We have a good deal of excess power, but there are several arguments in its favor. In the first place one dynamo would be overloaded from the start if we installed only as many lights as we have now and the plans outlined call for a great many more lamps than are now in use. It is true also that when the local plant was in its highest state of efficiency that not nearly enough lamps could be supplied and that while the lights furnished were very good that in many localities in the city needed lamps could not be installed. It is a fact that there are on file now in the city clerk's office at least 100 petitions from property owners asking for lamps in various parts of the city."

"With the new equipment proposed the city would have ample current to supply for lamps for these petitioners. Another argument in favor of surplus power is that it will not be necessary to work the machinery to its capacity and for this reason more satisfactory service can be given and the life of the machinery will be much longer. As before outlined we do not intend to throw away the old engines that we have. If they were sold they would bring but a few hundred dollars on the market whereas by retaining them we provide for emergency power and in case of accident we would have them to fall back upon."

Boulevard Lamps.

"I find, too, that the boulevard lighting system for the business district appeals to many citizens. It is of interest to residents in all parts of the city no matter how far distant they may be. From the business district to have it well lighted. The 180 or more boulevard lamps which we have planned will cost only about $1,400 more than some other system and will certainly give the business district a splendid night appearance. I am finding too, a number of citizens who favor the light proposition because they really believe that a well lighted city will have a tendency to increase property values. Another argument advanced for more light is that a well lighted city practically means a well policed city. Along with the other commissioners I am doing my best to explain to every citizen who gives me the opportunity just what the conditions are and just what we are hoping and planning to do."

Only Fair Investigation Asked.

"Our correspondence with the various machinery and electrical houses is open to inspection and our plans and specifications are being shown to everyone who cares to look at them. We are striving to do something which we really think will be of benefit and interest to every resident of Jacksonville, whether he be old or young, tax payer, or non-tax payer, and all that we are asking people to do is to look into the proposition without prejudice of one kind or another. If people will do this and honestly acquaint themselves with all the facts and conditions we will be perfectly satisfied whether they vote for or against the proposition. In other words all we are asking of citizens is to really look into the proposition with some degree of thoroughness and then to decide the matter upon its merits."

MR. MILLER CALLED HOME ON ACCOUNT OF FLOODS

James W. Miller, who came to the city recently on business, has received a letter from his wife at Longwood, Miss., which is a short distance below Greenville, stating that the Mississippi is raging and that the crest of the wave is expected by Saturday. Mr. Miller's property and lands are protected by a levy, and there are grave fears that the recent floods of the Ohio stream will work havoc in that region.

FLOODS HALT

Effects of the flood in Ohio on traffic is still evident, so thinks William Baumgartner, who has recently rented the Long property on South Diamond street, and has been waiting for his car load of goods from Cincinnati, Ohio. The goods left Cincinnati the day before the flood and nothing has been heard from the car since. Several tracers have been sent out but to no avail.

PREPARATIONS AGAINST HIGH WATER.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cox, who recently moved to a farm near Chambersburg, have been compelled to move their household goods to the second story of their home and have taken their stock and implements to the bluffs. This farm is in the McGhee district, which has been threatened by the Illinois river. Mrs. Cox has returned to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Strawn, northwest of the city.

Boys Raincoats and Hats to match, $3.50. Myers Bros.

WILL REMAIN IN CHICAGO.
The many friends of Mrs. Catherine Cox and her daughter, Miss Ethel, of South Clay avenue will learn with regret that they are to make Chicago their home. Mrs. Cox went to that city last Sunday and the daughter will go next Sunday night. Miss Ethel has been the competent bookkeeper at Passavant hospital for some time.

BOOSTERS FAVOR LIGHT BOND ISSUE

YOUNG MEN VISITED LIGHT PLANT WEDNESDAY NIGHT.

After Tour of Inspection Resolution Was Passed Pledging Support to Bond Proposition—Mayor Davis and Commissioners Explained Needs and Conditions.

An unqualified endorsement of the $50,000 bond issue for the improvement of the lighting system was the result of a rousing meeting of the Boosters' club Wednesday night at the city hall. Addresses were made by Mayor Davis and the commissioners, explaining the need for improvement, the economies that would be made possible by new equipment and the condition of the city's finances. The meeting was preceded by a tour of inspection of the municipal lighting plant. Commissioner Brennan guided the boosters through the plant, commenting on the deficiencies of the present equipment and pointing out improvements needed. A number of business men were present besides the regular members of the Boosters' organization. All the commissioners were present with the exception of Mr. Newman. Several new members joined the club, including three of the commissioners. At the close of the meeting, formal resolutions were adopted expressing the club's support of the bond issue.

Mr. Brennan Explains Need.

Vice-president John Cain, the chairman, called first on J. F. Brennan, commissioner of public property, for his views on the need of the proposed improvements. Mr. Brennan explained that the plant is now running to its full capacity with no reserve power for use in case of accident. The electric generators are out of date and the lamps are so near worn out that they are constantly needing repairs. The space for storing coal near the furnaces is absurdly small. Much could be saved the taxpayer by attention to so relatively a small factor as carbons. New lamps will burn carbons which last about one-hundred hours and never cost more than $17 per thousand. The old lamps consume an old fashioned form of carbon, costing $26 per thousand and burning only from twelve to fourteen hours. He pointed out the need for and extent of continual lighting in the business district and told of the need for replacing the present areas throughout the residence districts and the installation of a hundred or more additional lights. He emphasized the fact that the proposed improvements in lighting are more for the benefit of the residence district than the business section.

The Financial Side.

The next speaker, Commissioner Knollenberg, dwelt on a few financial phases of the question. Through negotiations already made with bond houses it is known that the whole issue will be sold easily at four and one-half per cent interest. He reminded those present that $27,000 of indebtedness have been paid off since the inauguration of the commission form of government.

The Mayor's Views.

Mayor Davis also discussed the financial side of the question, showing that the city is in a better condition now for the assuming of a bonded indebtedness than it has been for some time. Since 1905 a reduction has been made in the bonded indebtedness of the city to the extent of $10,000 per year. The present administration came in under conditions highly unfavorable. The city was deep in debt and the preceding councils had left unpaid bills to the amount of $40,000. A reduction of the city expenses has been made during the present administration by thirty-five per cent. Added to the present indebtedness of $117,500, this $50,000 thousand dollar bond issue will not bring it up to the amounts owed by the city in 1899 and immediately afterward.

Other Speeches.

Bernard Gause said a few words of agreement with the bond issue. S. O. Barr said he was heartily in favor of the best lights the city can have, but would be at home with the subject to a greater degree were it a question of water. W. E. Thomson drew out the difference between extending the plant and buying current from other sources. He said that many people overlooked the fact that a new set of arc lights would have to be purchased were current bought from the electric company. The present ones can not utilize the alternating current of the company, being made for a direct current. Mr. Engel, who was not present at the time the other commissioners spoke, encouraged the Boosters and said that a great deal can be accomplished if everyone get behind and push. He said he especially welcomed prospects of better lighting in his own department. There is no more effective aid to the police than plenty of light.

The Resolutions.

Before adjourning, the club passed the following resolutions:

Whereas, We are boosters in spirit as well as in name, and whereas, we are going to boost everything that will prove to be for the greatest good for the greatest number of the people of Jacksonville; whereas, we believe that without good lights this city will never provide opportunities which other cities are offering, and whereas, we believe the bond issue for $50,000 proposed by our city administration will enable them to give us good lights, be it resolved, that we, as members of the Boosters' Club of Jacksonville, Ill., hereby pledge our united support and individual and collective effort to boost and carry if possible the bond election Tuesday, April 15.

JULIUS F. PRATT DIES AT JOY PRAIRIE HOME

PIONEER MORGAN COUNTY RESIDENT PASSES AWAY WEDNESDAY.

Came to Jacksonville From Vermont in 1815—Had Been in Failing Health Since Last November.

Julius Franklin Pratt, one of the pioneer residents of Morgan county, passed away at his home at Joy Prairie Wednesday shortly after noon. Mr. Pratt had been in failing health since November of last year, and for some days his condition had been regarded as critical.

Julius Franklin Pratt was born in Bridport, Addison county, Vermont, August 25, 1819, a son of Lyman and Asenath (Williams) Pratt. He was reared on a farm and educated in the common schools of Vermont and the academies at Shoreham and Middlebury, in that state. After completing his education he taught school during the winters and worked for wages as a farm hand during the summer months until his marriage, August 25, 1845, in Middlebury, Vt., to Loranie Snow. She was born January 18, 1816, also in Bridport, Vt., and was a daughter of Lemmim and Alice (Bennett) Snow. Her father was a native of New York state and her mother of Connecticut.

Immediately after his marriage Mr. Pratt started for the west with his wife and sister, Charlotte, who afterward married Sylvester Joy of Morgan county. Arriving in Jacksonville, Mrs. Pratt soon afterward began to teach school, in which work she was engaged near Concord during the winter of 1845-46, her husband being similarly employed near Elm Grove. When Mr. Pratt and his wife reached Morgan county it was in the expectation of purchasing land for farming operations, but as he had but $150 capital, he and his wife agreed that it would be best to increase their resources by teaching, as there was a strong demand for educated teachers in the new country. Having accumulated sufficient money to carry out their ambition, in the spring of 1846 Mr. Pratt rented of William C. Cheney, fifty acres of land on Joy Prairie, and in the little log cabin located thereon he and his wife began house-keeping. The land had been broken by Mr. Cheney, but was otherwise unimproved. After spending a year in the development of this property, Mr. Pratt rented of Mr. Cheney a farm located nearer Chapin, where he spent another year. He then returned to the original farm owned by Mr. Cheney, which he operated two or three years longer, in the meantime contracting for eighty acres of his present farm, for which he agreed to pay $7 per acre. This land he broke to the plow the year he was on the Cheney place. Soon afterward he purchased an additional eighty acre tract adjoining his first purchase, and these two parcels of land comprise the farm which is now the Pratt homestead.

Upon this farm he removed with his wife in 1851, and has resided there continuously since. The house in which he lived was built in 1856, and has been his home since August 25 of that year. Most of the land surrounding the property of Mr. Pratt was unbroken prairie when he settled in Morgan county, and deer and other game were very abundant.

In 1854 Mr. Pratt and his wife united with the Congregational church at Concord, through presentation of a letter from the church at Bridport, Vt., of which both had been members for some time. In the spring of 1858 he was elected a deacon of this church and occupied the office until his death, by continuous reelection every four years. This church was originally organized as a Presbyterian society, but as most of its members were of the Congregational faith and favored independent government, they afterward voted to affiliate with the Congregationalists.

A staunch Republican since the days of the founding of that party, prior to which he had been a Whig, Mr. Pratt had been actively interested in the success of the men and measures of that organization. His disposition to bear his full share of the public burdens and responsibilities is illustrated by the fact that he had served for many years as township trustee, school director and township trustee for school funds, filling the latter office for a period of thirty-two years.

Mr. Pratt was highly esteemed by the people of Morgan county, who, during the long years of his residence among them, learned to appreciate the strength of his character, his integrity and straightforwardness and his abundant public spirit. He was a man of generous impulses, kind to those in trouble or affliction and a friend of all worthy enterprises. As a representative of the best citizenship of Morgan county, the record of his life will no doubt occupy a permanent place in the annals of the county.

Mr. and Mrs. Pratt were the parents of four children, one of whom, Lyman, preceded him in death. Mrs. Pratt died May 22, 1892. He is survived by three children—Mrs. Alice Joy of Chapin, Tharlow Hayward of Chapin and Miss Ellen Eugenia, who resides on the home place. He is also survived by two sisters—Mrs. H. M. Wing of Rochester, Vt., and Mrs. Helen P. Bean.

Funeral services will be held Saturday morning at 10 o'clock at the late residence in charge of Rev. W. R. Butcher of the Joy Prairie church. Interment will be made in Diamond Grove cemetery.

CURRENT SHUT OFF.

Owing to some accident to machinery at the plant of the Jacksonville Light company, power and light current was cut off this morning from 1:50 until 2:20 o'clock. This occasioned a delay for that period at the Journal office.

WESTMINSTER CHURCH HELD ANNUAL MEETING.

Reports for All Departments Show Growth and Progress During Past Year.

The annual business meeting of the membership of Westminster church was held Wednesday night with a large representation of the membership present. Rev. H. L. Davis was chosen moderator and W. T. Brown was the clerk. The reports from all departments of the church showed that the year had been one of growth and activity and that excellent work is being done. It was indicated that through the several organizations the church gave the past year nearly $1,000 to missions. At the conclusion of the various reports of societies Rev. Mr. Davis gave a resume of the work from a pastor's point of view and made some suggestions for the coming year. William McCormick, G. C. Guthrie and J. Marshall Miller were chosen elders and C. Spruitt deacon. The reports were presented as follows:

Minutes—W. T. Brown.
Foreign Missionary society—Mrs. R. R. Stevenson.
Home Missionary society—Miss Harriet Phillips.

The guild—Miss Katherine Barr.
Mission band—Miss Jessie Holmes.
Ladies' Aid society—Mrs. Enslay Moore.

Church boards—W. T. Brown.
Y. P. S. C. E.—Miss Claire Stevenson.

Board of deacons—C. Spruitt.
The Sunday school—Supt. J. H. Ravhill, Jr.

J. A. Ayers, president of the board of trustees, presented the financial report and Enslay Moore gave a record of deceased members and related some very interesting church history referring especially to a revival in 1863.

A social hour with refreshments followed the business session.

BILLS PASSED BY HOUSE AND SENATE.

Springfield, Ill., April 9—Bills were passed by the house this morning as follows:

S. B. 1, (Clark)—Appropriating $500 for the painting of a portrait of former Lieutenant John G. Oglesby, the portrait to be hung in the lieutenant governor's office. Ayes 115, nays 0.

S. B. 39, (Lundee)—Appropriating $1,287.87 for Eliza Gest, widow of the late circuit judge of Rock Island, in the fourteenth district, being the balance of salary from the time of his death to the end of his term. Ayes 118, nays 4.

S. B. 86, (Lundberg)—Appropriating $1,000 for the painting of a portrait of former Governor Deneen, the portrait to be hung in the executive office. Ayes 102, nays 4. Representative Browne voted against the bill explaining his vote by saying he had no respect for the man, either living or dead.

Representative Shurtleff explained his vote, saying that while he had had differences with Mr. Deneen when the latter was governor, it was customary to make such appropriations and principally on account of the "divine economy" by which he was able to keep the state tax rate at a lower figure than it probably ever will be again, he voted "aye."

Cohlmeier, Graham and W. W. McCormick, Democrats, also voted against the bill.

S. B. 192, (O'Connor)—Appropriating $10,000 to meet a deficiency in the fund of the auditor of public accounts to cover the expenses of the apprehension and return of fugitives from justice. Ayes 123, nays 0.

Senate Bills Passed.
Bills were passed by the senate as follows:

S. B. 104, (Lundee)—Amending the criminal code in relation to larceny, 35-0.

S. B. 168, (Cornwell)—Amending automobile law to prohibit use of any horn making a loud and sharp noise, 46-0.

S. B. 78, (Beel)—Creating additional term of court in Bond and Randolph counties, 43-0.

S. B. 246, (Bailey)—Prohibiting discharge of fire arms on any public highway, 43-0.

Upon motion of Senator Hurlburt the senate at 12:45 this afternoon proceeded to the consideration of bills on second reading leaving several bills on the calendar on order of third reading.

Senate bill number 321, (Juul), creating forest preserve districts by referendum vote of the people, upon petition of 1000 voters in the proposed district, went over for one week when considerable opposition to the measure developed. Senator O'Connor led in the fight against the bill on the ground that it would create a new taking body.

PROPOSED LOW RATE.

The proposed new gas company in Springfield has offered 75 cent gas if it is granted a franchise. The Springfield Register in commenting on the matter does not oppose the idea of a new company, but points out some dangers. The Register suggests that unless the business in Springfield is sufficient for two companies that eventually there would be a consolidation and the public would have to pay rates which would yield interest on the whole investment. The fact that the proposed company would be compelled to tear up Springfield streets for a year or two is also mentioned. The Register says that paper would favor a municipally owned gas plant if the city were in position to acquire such a plant.

Laws Will Aid in Rehabilitation.
Columbus, O., April 9.—While Governor Cox and members of the Ohio relief committee and members of the Red Cross society were investigating conditions at Zanesville and several other points in the recently flood-swept zone today, the lower house of the Ohio legislature passed two measures intended to assist in the rehabilitation of devastated portions of the state. One bill permits cities and towns to exceed present tax limitations to restore public property that was damaged or destroyed. The other permits the state treasurer to loan $3,000,000 to building and loan associations in order to supply funds for re-building or repairing homes in Dayton, Columbus and other cities in the flood district.

The water supply really exceeds the demand in this vicinity just now.

The bond election will occur next Tuesday—do not forget the date, or the importance of the question. Vote.

Good roads—A trip in any direction out of Jacksonville will convince you that they are very much needed.

Member Rogerson moved that the eighth grade "building and repair" fund of about $50,000 be put out at interest.

Michigan will try the initiative, referendum and the recall at one dose. It will be a good test of the temper of the people of that state.

The amount of suffering and hardship in our own county, as a result of the recent floods, is not great as compared with some of the stricken localities, yet this is not pleasant weather for sojourning in poorly equipped tents as some of the residents in Naples and the low lands are now forced to do.

At the recent municipal election in Kansas City, Kas., 9,000 women voted and the official reports show that it was their votes that determined the result of a close contest. They held the balance of power and every candidate, including the mayor, to whom they gave their suffrage, was elected.

The American Federation of Labor now has an affiliated membership of 1,952,131. It will no doubt pass the two million mark, as its immediate plans include an energetic campaign of organization. Efforts, say the leaders, will be directed specially toward interesting workmen and workingwomen speaking the foreign tongue.

In the little mining town of Ladd the postal savings bank account totals some $28,000. The miners are foreigners and most of them have been up against the rascally savings banks conducted by some of their countrymen. They are family with government banks across the water and they have no hesitation in putting their money in the same kind of an institution here.

Railroads throughout the United States obtained in 1912 the lowest relative net income in twenty-five years. The year 1912 shows the lowest average freight receipts since 1900, payment of the highest wages in their history, multiplication of costly regulation, heaviest loss and damage claims on record, highest yet levied, largest gross revenues received, largest expenses of operation.

In 1904 there were 166 medical schools in the United States, nearly one half of the world's supply. There are now 110. This reduction has been brought about partly by the disappearance of commercial medical schools, but more through the merging of several small schools in many places. This decrease in number of medical schools has not been to the detriment of medical education.

Governor Dunne is protesting against the enormously increased appropriation bills that have been introduced in our legislature. The governor will be forced to use energetic measures if he hopes to manage that hungry bunch. The senatorial fight was a disappointment to them—Sherman forced it to a finish too quick for them, and they must get in their work somewhere.

The Vaderland just launched at Hamburg will carry 83 life boats, 70 of which can be launched from either side of the ship and can accommodate the whole passenger capacity of the vessel. Another great liner which has been reconstructed starts on its first voyage with an outer shell to take the force and damage of such a blow as wrecked the Titanic and leave an inner shell to keep it afloat. This vessel which was called unsinkable before this reconstruction is now called unsinkable, but carries more than 60 life boats.

The Federation of Women's clubs is now tackling the problem of bringing the health of the country districts of New York state up to the conditions in the larger cities. The sanitary question is one worthy their consideration. A large eastern manufacturing corporation, in addition to various welfare activities, has established for its 750 employees the most approved bathing facilities. Every employee may not only take a bath daily with soap and towels free, but is given 15 cents for each time he takes advantage of the privilege. This is education in sanitation in advanced degree.

A list is given of some forty of the big financial men of the country who will be amenable to the income tax. The capital and income are given in each case and the amount of the tax. John D. Rockefeller heads the list with a capital of $500,000,000, an income of $50,000,000, with $2,000,000 as the amount of tax he will have to pay. Andrew Carnegie comes next with a capital of $300,000,000, an income of $15,000,000 and a tax of $600,000. Then follow other great estates down to a capital of $45,000,000, an income of $2,250,000, and a tax of $90,000. This list, according to estimates will furnish a revenue of about $7,000,000. One or two of the great millionaires like Meyerhauser, the lumber king of St. Paul, are not included. In the $25,000,000 to $35,000,000 class, yielding incomes of $1,250,000 to $1,750,000 and taxes of $50,000 to $75,000, there are many names. The number of millionaires below this class is still greater.

GIVES UP FATHER'S NAME; PREFERS STEP-PARENT'S

Son is Target for Petition by Natural Guardian, Who is Paying for Education, Asking Release From Responsibility.

Chicago Record - Herald: A strange domestic tragedy, involving a son's preference for his step-father's name while a pupil in Elbert Hubbard's school in East Aurora, N. Y., was revealed yesterday when the father, Harry K. Snyder, a coal and ice dealer of Jacksonville, Ill., asked to be relieved from paying for his son's education.

Mr. Snyder was divorced by his wife, Nellie Bartlett Snyder, on charges of desertion. Mrs. Snyder then was married to N. B. Chase of 3238 South Park avenue, in St. Louis. Custody of the boy was awarded the mother on the understanding that the father should educate him at a school in Illinois.

Takes Stepfather's Name.
When the boy, Phillip, finished his second year in Wendell Phillips high school his mother sent him to Elbert Hubbard's school.

"I have registered as Allen Chase, as I desire to use this name because it is mother's," was a sentence in a letter that led Mr. Snyder into believing that something was wrong.

Mr. Snyder argued with his son that such treatment was not right and received a typewritten reply. He concluded that the letter was written in Chicago on Mr. Chase's machine and had been signed by the boy.

In this letter Phillip declared that in dropping his first name and using his second, Allen, he was but following the example of Woodrow Wilson and other notables. The embarrassment of being introduced as "Phillip Snyder, Mrs. Chase's son," he gave as a reason for using his stepfather's name.

Father in Rebellion.
Mr. Snyder says that he refused to write to his son for a long time, but that just before Christmas, 1912, he asked the boy what he would like as a present.

Phillip wrote, refusing any present, but stating that he wished his regular allowance.

Mr. Snyder asked Judge Dever yesterday to relieve him from the $75 allowance order. He alleged also that Mr. Hubbard's school was improper.

Judge Dever entered no order, but said that since the boy's tuition had been paid for the year he should remain at East Aurora. Next fall the judge declared the boy should be sent to a school in Illinois. He intimated that if young Snyder persisted in using his stepfather's name Mr. Snyder would be relieved of paying the allowance.

ROGERS-GRAYDON WEDDING.
Cincinnati, O., April 9.—Roscoe, the beautiful home of the Graydon family in Clifton, Cincinnati's most aristocratic suburb, was the scene today of a brilliant ceremony by which Miss Ethel Graydon, second daughter of Mrs. Thomas W. Graydon, became the bride of Lieutenant Cuthbert Rogers of the royal field artillery, stationed at Gloucester, England. Only the numerous members of the family of the bride and a few close friends were present at the wedding. The bride's only attendants were her sisters, Miss Margaret and Miss Helen Graydon. Clifford Kershaw, a brother officer and friend of the bridegroom acted as best man. After a week or so of travel in this country Mr. and Mrs. Rogers will sail for England, their future home.

CHATS WITH GREAT MEN OF THE CIVIL WAR

By Mrs. Gen. Pickett.

(The New York Evening World.)

PRESIDENT R. B. HAYES

A letter came to me from an old confederate soldier's widow, who, not realizing the impotence of one who was thrown helplessly ashore when the storm passed, wrote to me to aid her in securing a position as post-mistress.

Though I had not as yet grown accustomed to calling at a public office the letter was so pathetic and honest that I smothered by reluctance and decided to go at once to see President Hayes. When I was ushered in he was sitting at his desk holding my card in his hand.

"I came to see the president," I said, not feeling sure that this was Mr. Hayes.

"Yes. What can I do for you, madam?"

"You can do a great charity and give bread to a widow and orphans who helped make by granting the request contained in the letter," handing the missive to him.

After reading it he asked:

"Do you know this lady personally and can you vouch for what she says?"

"Yes, I know her intimately. Her oldest son is named for Gen. Pickett, and—"

"I see she says she is going to have some other fellow do the work."

"What of that? Does not everybody do that? Don't you?"

"I guess I do my share. But why didn't she write to her congressman? This is a political office."

"I know that, but she is a Democrat and you do not recognize her representative in congress."

"How do you or I know that she will fill the place?"

"I know. And you must swap sight unseen as the boys say."

"I never gamble. I always know where the kaffe is before I choose hands. Are you living in Washington now?"

"Yes sir, I am in office."

"In what office? Why don't you ask for this place for yourself. Wouldn't it pay more?"

"Three times as much and I might possibly keep the place a month, but at the end of that time I should be in the penitentiary. I can't count. I couldn't do my sums to bless me."

"Then I suppose it would be better for you to stay where you are," he laughed.

After asking me some questions about the war he said:

"You know I have a little war record of my own. I started in as a major in the Thirty-third Ohio and was made brigadier general on the recommendation of Sheridan; served all through the war and liked the army so well I refused to leave it for a seat in congress. Though I have been governor of Ohio three times, the last after a most desperate campaign, I am nothing of a politician."

"I should think you were the greatest politicians to occupy the president's chair when another man was elected to it," I replied impatiently.

"That was the other fellow's politics, and for a while it looked as if I'd have a second war chance. But the Democrats decided it was better to stomach me than another revolution."

"For my part, I am glad they did. You have done more for the south than I believe Tilden could or would have done; if in nothing else, in riding us of carpet bag rule."

"Don't you think, perhaps, the check of the Louisiana Lottery company deserves a little credit for that? It is said to have helped the prevention of a quorum in the Louisiana legislature."

A waiter coming in just then with a tray, the president, with the hospitality of old Virginia, turned to me and asked:

"Come; won't you have a cup of tea?"

Escorting me through a door which separated the president's office from the family rooms, he introduced me to Mrs. Hayes. To my mind she was a beautiful woman of great dignity and kindness of heart and one who received and welcomed the humblest of her friends with the same cordiality with which she greeted the wealthy and mighty.

When I returned to the president's office he had called up the postmaster general and some of the members of congress from my state and assured me of the appointment for my friend.

"I want to thank you, Mr. President," said I. "For this great kindness to the widow of one of my beloved confederates, and for the yet higher act of humanity in restoring that brave soldier, that heartbroken old hero, General Warren to his rights. Of course, on the other hand, I can never quite forgive you for thrusting Gen. B. F. Butler upon the Democratic party."

Standing, the president briefly told me of how Butler had tried to influence the committee in favor of his candidate, a one legged man, by making him take off the leg and limp in on crutches. Indignant over the failure of his dramatic scene, Butler left his party and joined the Democratic party.

My friends were almost incredulous as I told them of the generosity and quick response of Mr. Hayes, saying that was most unlike the president, who was a great refuser and a slow performer, hesitating over and refusing the request of even the most prominent of his party. Either for that or some other cause, it is certain that Mr. Hayes had the hostility of nearly all the great leaders of his party, only three senators of either side supporting his administration.

But fortunately for him, he had the ablest cabinet since that of Jefferson, and was himself a wise, earnest, cautious administrator. When he was though with his office he handed it down not only to a Republican, but a member also of the majority of the electoral commission, and he was the only president who ever promised never to be a candidate again and kept his word.

HORSE WAS INJURED.

A horse belonging to John Higler had a leg badly sprained yesterday. Mr. Higler was driving the animal across the street railway tracks at the corner of Duolin avenue and Walnut street, when in some manner the shoe of the horse got caught in the track and in extracting the foot a bad sprain resulted.

JESSIE WILSON TO SPEAK.

Richmond, Va., April 9.—The annual national convention of the Young Women's Christian Association opened in this city today and will continue until next Tuesday. Several hundred delegates, representing nearly every state of the union, are present. The convention is planned for all members of the Y. W. C. A., students and teachers in all educational institutions, all persons who wish to acquaint themselves with the association work, and those who are interested in missionary work.

The principal sessions of the gathering are to be held in historic St. Paul's church, where President Jefferson Davis and Gen. Robert E. Lee were communicants. Prominent among those scheduled to address the convention is Miss Jessie Wilson, daughter of President Woodrow Wilson.

One of the most attractive features of the convention will be an elaborate pageant to be given Saturday afternoon in Bryan park. The pageant will be staged by Miss Letta Clarke of Boston and will illustrate the student, city and missionary work conducted by the association.

Rheumatism as a result of kidney trouble, stiff and aching joints, backache and sore kidneys will all yield to the use of Foley Kidney Pills. LINCOLN STATUE UNVEILED.

Webster City, Ia., April 9.—The life sized bronze statue of Abraham Lincoln, modeled by the sculptor George M. Gardner of Chicago, and presented to the Webster City high school by Alexander Groves, as a memorial to his son Harry, was formally unveiled today at the high school with appropriate ceremonies and in the presence of the donor, Mr. Groves, the teachers and students of the school and a number of invited friends of Mr. Groves. The Hon. L. A. McMurray, a close friend of the donor, made the presentation speech. J. W. Lee, representing the school board delivered the address of acceptance and Henry Miller, a high school student spoke for the high school. In the evening Dr. Gunsaulus of Chicago will deliver an address on Abraham Lincoln before a public gathering of the citizens.

Herman Shoemaker of the Buckhorn neighborhood was transacting business in the city yesterday. His step-daughter Miss Marie Bussey accompanied him here and will visit for a few days at the home of George Bussey on Prairie street.

DR. PRICE'S Cream Baking Powder

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder is free from alum and lime phosphates. Made from grape Cream of tartar and absolutely pure. Its use is a safeguard to health, for it actually aids digestion, and relieves from all anxiety as to the wholesomeness of the food.

On the other hand each attempted imposition of an alum baking powder upon the consumer is a covert attack upon the health of the family. Of course, no grocer would knowingly sell injurious food to his customers; but he has himself been deceived as to the true character of the cheap powders by their manufacturers.

Forewarned, and solicitous for the health of her family, the housewife will be influenced to a constant watchfulness and a stubborn resistance against the danger.

Baking Powders sold at a lower price than Dr. Price's are almost invariably made from alum, and therefore inferior, and prejudicial to health.

The Cook-Stove A Help?—or a Hindrance?

Many women are content to put up with the out-of-date, back-breaking, nerve-racking, work-making coal range, for washing and ironing and cooking. All the old-time discomforts of the cook-stove—its dirt, its ashes, its filling and refilling, its feverish heat, its uncertain baking, its delays and its expense—are now spared housewives who know the efficient, economical NEW PERFECTION Wick Blue Flame Oil Cook-Stove.

The NEW PERFECTION burns oil. At two-thirds the cost of gas and one-half the cost of gasoline. Lights in a second. Gives forth an intense blue flame. No odor.

It does better baking, broiling, boiling, roasting and toasting than coal range, gas or gasoline stove. And is thoroughly safe.

Over a half million NEW PERFECTIONS are now in use in the middle west alone.

New Perfection WICK BLUE FLAME Oil Cook-stove

Ask your nearby dealer to demonstrate this wonderful stove. Have him show you its cabinet top (for keeping dishes hot) with drop shelf and towel racks that make the NEW PERFECTION a real range in appearance as well as in usefulness and in convenience. See the new Oil Reservoir with indicator. See the odorless, smokeless burner, a marvel in itself. See our special Oven. Note the NEW PERFECTION'S WICK BLUE FLAME. Consider this stove in point of looks, simplicity and general efficiency. Judge for yourself what a saving of money, time and patience a NEW PERFECTION will mean to you.

If you can't locate a dealer, write us direct and get free descriptive booklet.

BASEBALL NOTES AND COMMENT.

(By W. I. Tilton)

They're at the post. At last the patience of the great army of fans is to be rewarded. After months of mere existence the roster is to come into his own. It's a rather wet opening, but be sure your dyed in the wool fan won't be bothered by a little old flood or two. Nothing short of a combined earthquake, cyclone and deluge can dampen his ardor. The day of days is here. And from until October's winds blow chill and the umpire has called the last world's series game between—well, let's say the Giants and Red Sox—he'll be in his native element. The big show is about to begin. Yesterday's preliminary at Brooklyn, in which the Phillies were returned victors after a heart-breaking contest, but served to whet the appetite for the real feast which is to be served this afternoon. There will be one postponement. Cincinnati is in the flood belt and her park is in no condition to play upon. But by Friday the rejuvenated Reds under Tinker's guidance, expect to be ready to inaugurate the season in Porkopolis. Their usual seventh heaven ante-season enthusiasm is on tap and they are expecting the Tinkers to make a run away race of it. Sad disappointment is in store for the Red bugs. They are used to it, however, and next fall will be explaining how it all happened and start the search for another martyr to fill Joe's shoes.

St. Louis under Miller Huggins will engage the made-over Cubs with Johnny Evers holding the reins so long in the hands of the Peerless Leader, Frank Chance. Evers has his work cut out for him. It's problematical, in the extreme, whether he can get the work out of that somewhat temperamental bunch. As one unkind critic remarks, he will probably direct the team from the club house most of the time. Which is but another way of saying that he'll be put out of the game ever so often. Cincy and Pittsburg will hook up Friday. The Pirates will be without the services of the great Wagner, for a time at least. He has a bad leg, received in one of the practice series. Bad business this ante-season playing. Here's Chance put out of it right at the start and just when he is most needed. He wrenched his ankle in a little messy game with the Trolley Dodgers. Derrick also got a badly spiked hand. All to no purpose whatever. It is probable that next season will see the end of all this foolishness. See what Pittsburg suffered at Hot Springs, to go no further. Its suicidal to risk the life and limbs of valuable players in games that have no bearing one way or the other in the records. Cut it out!

Boston will open at New York. This series should be a puddin' for the McGrawites and give them a good start in the race. Marquard and Matty have shown that they are in tip top form. They should win both the games they officiate in. Tesreau can be counted on to slip one over. It looks like a clean sweep for the joints. Philadelphia should win a major share of the series with Brooklyn. Of course no one gives the cardinals a chance to take this series from the Cubs. But don't be too sure. Remember how those same Cubs play like world-beaters against New York, Pittsburg and the other big ones and then get unmercifully walloped by the lowly tail-enders. We pick today's winners to be New York, Philadelphia, Chicago. Look at the bulletin board tonight and see. The umpires have been assigned as follows: Klem and Orth at New York, Rigler and Byron at Philadelphia, Owens and Guthrie at Chicago, Brennan and Eason at Cincinnati; Emslie and O'Day are unassigned. They will be held on reserve. Bill Guthrie, mentioned above, once worked in the Central association and officiated here. He was marked as coming in those days. We always held that he was a great indicator holder. And the proof has come. Set 'em up, Bill.

The American league is due to open this afternoon too. Detroit starts at St. Louis, minus the services of the mighty Ty Cobb. He is still a hold out. Of course that won't hurt the Tigers' chances against the lowly Browns. It looks like a majority of the series will go to Jennings' warriors. The White Sox will tackle Cleveland. The dope is for the Sox to come first under the wire. Chance's team opens at Washington. He couldn't have drawn a worse opening. Johnson is sure to pitch the opener and everybody knows what that means. Groom and Cashion should win their games. It looks like the tail-end for the Highlanders at the start. The season is a long one, however, and Frank is not going to stay around the foot very long. Not after he gets the hang of things. Don't expect too much of his team this season. He'll top the second division, anyhow. Mark the prediction. The Red Sox should make the Philadelphia Athletics play for all they are worth to win. This series will be the bright light in the opening. As a toss up as to the winner. Probably an even break would very nearly state the case. So they're off. Now then, altogether, you fans, come on! Hip! Hip! Hurrah!

Just look at the score of that opening contest at Brooklyn. Did you ever see such a close game at the opening of a season. Which goes to show the marvelous advance that has been made in conditioning and training of the men. It sounds like a July game. This young Seaton will bear watching. And look over the list in the box score. That Philadelphia line-up is the best balanced in the whole league and if it can only escape its usual unfortunate run of accidents should finish right up near the front. The great Rucker was evidently a bit off form which may account for the fact that his team didn't win. But the Brooklynites got their money's worth. It was a game worth going half way across the continent to see.

A costly accident to the Cubs in Tuesday's game will deprive them of the services of Saier. This will force Archer to play the bag and Bresnahan will do the catching. See where the Cubs would be without Jimmy? He can play the bag with the best of 'em. He's worth every cent of what he demanded. Guess Murphy is glad he came to terms with the great catcher. He would be up against it good and hard right now if he hadn't.

Scott is likely to pitch the opener against Cleveland today. Big Ed isn't quite fit and a wise old leader like Callahan won't take any chances against losing the first game. It is by getting the jump that Cal hopes to obtain a lead that will put him so far out in front that he can't be headed unless the pitchers blow up as they did last year. He is better fortified this year than last, however. Benz, Lange, White and Mogridge make up a strong staff.

Feet So Sore Couldn't Walk Down Stairs—

TIZ Cured Her Quick.

Send at Once for Free Trial Package.

If you have sore feet, tired feet, swollen feet, lame feet, tender feet, smelly feet, corns, calluses or bunions, read what happened to Mrs. Crockett, of Jacksonville. TIZ did it. Mr. Crockett says: "After the second treatment she walked downstairs one foot at a time. She had not been able to walk downstairs before in past five years, except by stepping down on each step with one foot at a time. This is remarkable. Send five more boxes." No matter what ails your feet or what under heaven you have used without getting relief, just use TIZ. It's the only foot remedy ever made which acts on the principle of drawing out all the poisonous exudations which cause sore feet. Powders and other remedies merely clog up the pores. TIZ cleans them out and keeps them clean. You will feel better the first time it's used. Use it a week and you can forget you ever had sore feet. There is nothing on earth that can compare with it. If anyone offers you an imitation that is claimed to be as good as TIZ, ask why. If it is just as good, they don't dare to come out and advertise it. Don't you be a victim—get the genuine TIZ for sale at all drug stores, department and general stores, 25c per box, or direct. If you wish, money back if TIZ doesn't do all we say. OBITUARY.

William C. Self, was born in Morgan county, August 24, 1839, and died at the family residence on East State street, Tuesday evening at 6:15, at the age of 74 years. He was married Jan. 1, 1861 to Louisa Stout, daughter of Thomas and Hannah Stout. To this union was born one son, John Spencer. His mother died Oct. 1, 1864. November 4, 1868, Mr. Self was married to Mrs. Mary Jane Phillips, daughter of Samuel and Mildred Black of Morgan county.

Soon after this marriage Mr. and Mrs. Self moved to Cass county. In the spring of 1873 they moved to their farm in Morgan county, near Salem church.

He was a very extensive stock raiser and farmer until the year 1899, when the family moved to Jacksonville and since that time he has resided at his home on East State street.

Mr. Self was converted at Shiloh church in the year 1863 under the ministry of Rev. Mr. McMahon, Rev. Mr. James and Rev. Mr. Mitchell. Soon after this he transferred his membership to Salem church, of which he was an active member and was very influential in building the church. He has been a very large contributor to the building of new churches. In fact, in a great many ways he has helped to advance the cause of his Master. For a number of years he was superintendent of Salem Sunday school. He is survived by his wife, one son, five grandchildren and five great grandchildren and three sisters, Mrs. George Swain, Mrs. William Harrison and Mrs. George Thompson.

Public notice is hereby given that Edmund Blackburn has filed and there is now pending in the Circuit Court of Morgan County, State of Illinois, a bill in chancery in which Timothy E. West, Dorinda M. West and Elmer E. Cohagen are made parties defendant; that summons in chancery has issued out of my office, directed to the sheriff of said Morgan county, and is returnable to the May term of said court, to be held in Jacksonville, in said county, on the second Monday, being the twelfth day, of May A. D. 1913. Now if the said defendants do not appear and plead, answer or demur to said bill the same will be taken as confessed and a decree entered against them according to the prayer of said bill.

Circuit Clerk.

SPIRITUAL AND RELIEF WORK OF SALVATION ARMY

Quarterly Report Has Been Issued by Officers of Religious Organization.

The following quarterly report of the Salvation Army spiritual and relief work has been compiled by the officers in charge:

It is hard to put on paper the very details of our work, the things which seem so small and insignificant and still are sufficiently important to go with the work. The Salvation Army has been organized for the purpose of reaching those who have no spiritual home, or those who do not care to enter the church. It has been said that the Salvation Army is everybody's church and we do not reach only the poor and outcast but some of the best there are. Since the present work of the army is progressing splendidly. The army mission is two-fold. First, it has been organized to look after the spiritual welfare of those that care not for the church or religious influence; second, to care for the body and those who are in need of food and clothing and advice. When we combined them both then we carry out the words of Christ, "In as much as ye have done it unto the least of these, my brethren, ye have done it unto me." Matt. 25:40. And again "Go out into the highways and hedges and compel them to come in that my house may be full." Luke 14:23. There has been asked why do Salvation army officers sacrifice their comforts, their homes, positions etc., to go into the work of the army with no recompense whatever, hardly sufficient to keep body and soul together. Capt. Linden gives the answer to it because we save the souls of men and women. We see farther than the outward appearance; we seek the soul. If that can be awakened to the responsibilities to its Creator, we have done a noble thing. Proverbs say, "Him that winneth souls is wise." Prov. 11:30. And Praise God he has enabled and used the army in a wonderful way. And I am glad to say that God is using the Salvation Army in this city of Jacksonville. We have seen quite a few people converted and stepping out to live christian lives; drunkards, swearers, Sabbath breakers, are living good consistent lives. So we feel the army is not a false as some would term us, but we believe in reality and we are so. While it is really impossible to give every detail of our work, no one can have any conception of it unless they are right in it. But we feel confident that God will keep on blessing us and the citizens will give us their support.

\$1,194 Profit from 6 $\frac{1}{4}$ Acres in Grapes

THIS is the experience of one man in Placer County, California. He gathered 2,985 crates of "Flaming Tokays", which he sold at 75c a crate, of which 40c was clear profit. Another cleared $3,685 from 12 acres of peaches. Another received $540.00 from one acre in Loganberries. This is only a few of the many profitable pursuits one may take up in California.

Why not go to California this Spring and get a piece of land? The soil is prolific, and will produce almost anything that grows. Let us help you to decide what line of endeavor you will undertake.

BRADY BROS

FOR "ADEQUATE NAVY."
Washington, D. C., April 9.—An attempt to construe the Democratic platform declaration in favor of an "adequate navy" is to be made at the convention of the navy league, which will be held in this city tomorrow and Friday. One of the papers to be discussed is devoted to that subject, and others relate to such matters as "Strategic Value of the Panama Canal to the Navy."

"The Consolidation of Navy Yards and Stations in the Light of Strategy and Economy," and "Wanted: A Navy Policy." The convention will conclude with a dinner on Friday night in honor of Secretary Daniels.

The navy league of the United States was incorporated under the laws of the state of New York on January 2, 1903, its declared object being "to acquire and spread before the citizens of the United States, through branch organizations and otherwise, information as to the condition of the naval forces and equipment of the United States, and to awaken public interest and cooperation in all matters tending to aid, improve and develop their efficiency. "It is strictly non-partisan and men, women and children are eligible to membership.

Clears Skin of Worst Eruptions

Remarkable Action of a Remedy That Drives Every Speck of Poison From Body.

There is a strange, mysterious power in a remarkable blood medicine that finds its way through the circulation by what is known as Divine selection. The remedy is Swift's Sure Specific, or S. S. S. Science cannot explain just why certain elements in the blood feed the bones, others nourish the hair roots, and so on. And it is this same mysterious action of S. S. S. that attacks all diseased spots, drives away all germs, heals all sores and supplants the activity of disease germs with the powerful healing action of leucocytes. Remarkable testimonials have been written that prove beyond question there is no blood disease but what can be cured by S. S. S. And in all those cases that were treated with mercury, iodides, arsenic, copper and other minerals with no permanent effect, the most astonishing recoveries have been made by S. S. S. There is not a blood taint of any nature that can remain in a system fortified by this most wonderful remedy, for it is absolutely pure and contains only those elements that the blood naturally assimilates, and which the tissues gratefully accept. It agrees with the most delicate stomachs even in those cases where the use of strong drugs has so weakened the digestive system that medicine cannot be given. Get a $1.00 bottle of S. S. S. at any drug store and thus be assured of a complete cure of any eruptive blood disease. If your case is peculiar and you desire special advice write to The Swift Specific Co., Medical Dept., 127 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga.

Note by the secretary: The above fund is made possible through the energy and enterprise of the park board in their effort to make "ends meet" and is entirely outside of the official tax levy.

The opportunities to make Nichols park an "income piece of property" are quite limited. The commissioners, however, have not intentionally overlooked any chance to create revenue therefrom. The board the past two years have successfully remained within this park's city appropriation regardless of the cut in this park's appropriation of practically $1,000.

The natural resources of Nichols park offer an opportunity to make this one of the most beautiful and attractive pleasure grounds in the state, a park the people of Jacksonville may point to with just pride.

The administration of the present board has been one of economy, owing to the lack of funds and their desire to keep with its appropriation most of their plans and dreams for improving and beautifying the park have been "pigeon holed." Appointments to the Park commission are made, as I understand it, for life. It is a "labor of love" pure and simple, the only chance to retire after being handed "one of the lemons" is that of "sickness." The park board trusts it may be able before its term expires to add much of value, comfort and interest to the park.

All things considered the present board have made a commendable record. I simply mention this in passing for the benefit of the members of the board, as I have not heard anyone else say so. However, as they say in Kentucky, "It is the difference of opinion that makes the horse races."

The W. F. M. S. meets with Miss Emma Kirby Wednesday, April 9.

Mr. and Mrs. Zack Jones of Jacksonville spent last week with friends here. They expect to move here soon.

E. D. Scott spent Monday evening in the city attending the Farmers' institute meeting.

At the annual meeting of the Rees Elevator Co., Monday Samuel Darley Thomas Oxley and William Alford were re-elected directors for three years.

The Blues were in the lead Sunday in the Sunday school contest.

Mrs. Samuel Darley has received word that her brother, Luther Anderson, and his wife are safe at their home at Hamilton, Ohio, although Mr. Anderson was among those imprisoned so long by the flood in the business section of the city. His wife could not hear from him during that time. Fortunately their home was on high ground. Luther was born and reared in Jacksonville, attending school here until he was 14 years old and has many friends, who will be glad to know of his safety.

Among those who took the final examination from this vicinity were Roy Smith, Carl Rawlin, Clyde Oxley, Gussie Flynn and Vina Rodgers.

Look to Your Plumbing.

You know what happens in a house in which the plumbing is in poor condition—everybody in the house is liable to contract typhoid or some other fever. The digestive organs perform the same functions in the human body as the plumbing does for the house, and they should be kept in first class condition all the time. If you have any trouble with your digestion, take Chamberlain's Tablets and you are certain to get quick relief. For sale by all dealers.

TO ELECT SUFFRAGAN BISHOP.

Boston, Mass., April 9.—A suffragan bishop for the Protestant Episcopal diocese of Massachusetts is to be elected at the annual diocesan convention which opened this morning in the Cathedral church of St. Paul in this city. At the opening of the convention, immediately after organization, the annual sermon was preached by the Rev. Dr. Endicott Peabody, headmaster of the Gordon school. The sermon was followed by administration of the holy communion.

The election of the suffragan bishop will take place tomorrow morning. It is expected that only two names will be brought to the attention of the convention, those of the Very Rev. Samuel G. Babcock, archdeacon of the Massachusetts diocese, and the Rev. Dr. Herman Page, rector of St. Paul's church, Chicago.

Cough Medicine For Children. Too much care cannot be used in selecting a cough medicine for children. It should be pleasant to take, contain no harmful substance and be most effective. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy meets these requirements and is a favorite with the mothers of young children everywhere. For sale by all dealers.

LA SALLE COLLEGE FIFTY YEARS OLD

Philadelphia, Pa., April 9.—Many high dignitaries of the Roman Catholic hierarchy of this country, prominent educators of Roman Catholic institutions of learning, distinguished laymen and alumni of La Salle college attended the pontifical mass at the cathedral today which marked the opening of the celebration of the golden jubilee of La Salle college. In the evening there will be a banquet at the Bellevue-Stratford and tomorrow evening the anniversary exercises will close with a public reception at the Metropolitan opera house, at which addresses will be delivered by distinguished Catholic educators. The college was founded in 1863, when the late Archbishop Wood, in conjunction with a committee of the Christian brothers and others, obtained from the state a charter incorporating the institution.

TO HEAR RATE CASES. Texarkana, Tex., April 9.—Great interest is being manifested here in the session tomorrow of the interstate commerce commission when the Texarkana-Shreveport rate cases are to be heard. Texarkana claims that Shreveport should not be entitled to water competition rates as there no longer is any traffic on the Red river. The principle involved is interesting to many other places as evidenced by the number of letters received by the Chamber of Commerce from other states inquiring into the details of the case.

Edward Cade, H. C. Smith and Harry Smith were in from Woodson on business Wednesday.

A STRONG REFERENCE.
A young man recently applied for a position with a large printing house, and not having a letter of reference, offered his bank book. It showed a regularity of entries of deposit. It was a very strong recommendation, indicating character and persistence, which finally secured for him a good position.

TO KILL THE DANDRUFF GERM.

is the Only Possible Way of Having An Effective Cure.

If you see a woman or a man with luxuriant glossy hair, you may be sure neither has dandruff to amount to anything. In nearly every case where women and men have thin brittle hair, they owe it to dandruff. There are hundreds of preparations that "claim" to cure dandruff, but not one but Newbro's Herpicide tells you that dandruff is the result of a germ burrowing into the scalp, and that permanent cure of dandruff and its consequent falling and baldness, can only be had by killing the germ; and there is no other preparation that will destroy that germ but Newbro's Herpicide. "Destroy the cause, and you remove the effect." Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. In stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

J. Pierpont Morgan, Jr., Expected to Fill His Dead Father's Place In the Great Money World.

Photos copyright by American Press Association.

With the death of J. Pierpont Morgan the intensest sort of speculation arose as to who would fill the great financier's place in the financial world. The answer from many sources has been that J. P. Morgan, Jr., Mr. Morgan's able son, would take his father's mantle of financial kingship. Mr. Morgan, Jr., has been actively directing the big money enterprises of his father in association with the several Morgan partners for some time, and it has been often reported that the son had learned all business intricacies and was an eminently capable financier. Above, at the right, is one of the latest pictures of the dead multimillionaire, with a picture of Mrs. Morgan, the widow, at his side, and below that a late picture of Mr. Morgan, Jr.

LETTER FROM OHIO GIVES CLEAR IDEA OF DAMAGE TO RESIDENCES

Resident of Morrow Tells How Water Stood to Depth of Three and a Half Feet in Her House.

In the flood districts of Ohio and Indiana even where the residents felt no immediate danger of loss of life they suffered great inconvenience and damage to property. Just what it means to have one's home flooded with water to a depth of three and one-half feet is indicated clearly in a letter received yesterday by Mrs. F. E. Baldwin from a relative in Morrow, Ohio. The Journal is permitted to print an extract as follows:

Morrow, O., April 6, 1913.
We were without trains or mail for over a week, so your letter has just reached me. I am sorry to say that we were very much in the flood. Although Morrow was fortunate in having no loss of life, the town is very much torn up and I am afraid it will take a long time to recover.

Our house is one of the highest in the village, yet the water was three and one-half feet high in it, and over the counters in the drug store. Part of the floors in our house look fairly well, but part of them are much more suggestive of a corduroy road than a hardwood floor. We had put the piano up about six inches, but it fell over and everything had a coating of several inches of sticky mud. The yard is filled with a coating of mud through which a few patches of grass appear, and it has enough logs and fodder piled in it to fill several cars.

The day after the flood we had six men at work all day shoveling and sweeping mud off the floors, and then had the fire engine hose turned on them.

It is an experience I would not care to repeat. While our house is big and substantial and I did not feel afraid of its moving, the current was so swift in places that no one could have reached us. The woman and children from our tenant house were with us and we all had to stay there over twenty-four hours before a boat could come for us. The pressure of the water was so great that it raised our parlor windows and we don't know yet how many things floated away. I stood on the first landing of the stairs and fished up the mahogany heart-shaped table as it floated by in the hall, and more books than I could count. We had put these things up, but not high enough.

I haven't told a thing except flood news, but it is all we have heard or thought about for the last ten days, and I am beginning to feel as if we lived in a shanty-boat. We have been staying with our friends who live on the hills, and going down every day to air and clean the house.

Jacksonville people endorse their worth.

Mrs. O. Lansing, 802 North Diamond street, Jacksonville, Ill., says: "I always praise Doan's Kidney Pills when I hear of anyone having kidney complaint. What I said about this remedy in 1901 still holds good. Nothing ever did my backache as much good as Doan's Kidney Pills. I took them when I was almost laid up and in a short time they put me on my feet again. I have usually procured Doan's Kidney Pills at Armstrong's drug store and I think so highly of them that I am willing to have my statement published."

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

The late start we are getting makes it necessary to do all we can in a limited time. Get the Great 3-Horse Gang. Reason why? You can accomplish more and do it better than is possible with any other plow. You save the expense of one set of harness and one horse. You pull absolutely straight (no side draft). You turn a perfect furrow, cover all the tract and at any desired depth. The special shape share and general construction of the plow makes this possible. Ask the man who has one. He will tell you. MATRIMONIAL McCurley-Gallagher.

The marriage of Miss Mae Gallagher and Mr. Frank McCurley was solemnized Wednesday evening at 5 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents in Woodson, Dr. G. W. Miller officiating. The house was prettily decorated for the occasion in colors of pink and white by the use of flowers. The wedding march from Lohengrin was played by Mrs. J. T. Self, and the attendants were Miss Irene Gallagher, a sister of the bride and Mr. Amos McCurley, a brother of the groom. The ceremony was witnessed by immediate relatives and friends of the contracting parties.

The bride wore a gown of white embroidery with pink satin girdle, made princess and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gallagher and has always made Woodson her home. She is an attractive young woman having a wide circle of friends.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William McCurley and at one time was a student in Brown's business college of this city. He is an industrious young man and held in much regard.

Following the marriage a wedding dinner was served. The young people received a large number of pretty and useful presents. They will go to housekeeping at once on a farm one mile east of Murrayville.

Among those to attend the wedding were Mrs. James McFall of this city, grandmother of the groom, Miss Mollie Henry and Miss Marie Megginson of Woodson, Wilbur Williams of Chapin and Dr. J. E. Gallagher of West Mineral, Kansas, a brother of the bride.

There is no case on record of a cough, cold or influenza developing into bronchitis, pneumonia or consumption after Foley's Honey and Tar Compound has been taken. The genuine is in a yellow package. Refuse substitutes. City Drug Store, J. A. Obermeyer.

JACKSONVILLE MEN TELL OF FLORIDA

H. L. DOAN RETURNS WITH PICTURE OF GREAT SEA MONSTER

Was Exhibited at Miami—F. E. Farrell Guest at Hotel Just Opened on Historic Gasparilla Island—Member of the Pirates Club Now—Great Phosphate Business.

Two well known Jacksonville citizens have recently returned from the south, H. L. Doan from his winter home at Miami, Fla., and F. E. Farrell at Boca Grande on Gasparilla Island off the west coast of Florida. Mr. Doan was very much interested in seeing "The Monster of the Deep" on exhibition at Miami. This monster was captured in June, 1912 in the vicinity of Knights Key, Fla. by Capt. Charles H. Thompson who is well known by Mr. Doan and other Jacksonville men.

Captain Thompson who had the creature stuffed and mounted is making big returns from exhibitions. He is said to have refused an offer of $45,000 for the creature and there is a rumor that the United States has really acquired the strange find and that later on it will be exhibited in some national museum. The creature is not classified in natural history but is proclaimed by scientists in natural history to be the most remarkable specimen ever captured. The genus or species is unknown.

The capture was made when Capt. Thompson was out sailing with a friend. They were looking for sharks and when they sighted this monster Captain Thompson succeeded in harpooning it. The fight with the monster lasted for thirty-nine hours before he finally succeeded in landing it on the shore and there at least five hundred people witnessed the final struggle. Some additional facts about the monster and capture are given in a circular issued by Captain Thompson. Mr. Doan has a post card picture of the monster.

"Five harpoons and 151 bullets were required to subdue the monster and it took five days to finally kill it. It smashed a boat into thousands of pieces; knocked the rudder and propeller off a 31-ton yacht.

"Had to be towed 110 miles by a tug. Weight, 30,000 pounds. Length, 45 feet. Circumference, 23 feet 9 inches. Diameter, 8 feet 3 inches. Mouth, (open), 31 inches. Mouth 38 inches wide. Mouth 43 inches deep.

"Tongue 40 inches long. Several thousand teeth. Had swallowed an animal weighing 1,500 pounds. The liver weighed 1,700 pounds.

"Characters of fish and animal—contrary to all laws of natural history. Tail measures 10 feet from tip to tip. Pectoral fin 5 feet long. 2 feet 9 inches wide. Dorsal fin 3 feet long. 2 feet 9 inches wide. Gills 4 feet long. Hide 3 inches thick, no scales. Specimen mounted by J. S. Warmbath, sent to Miami by Smithsonian institute.

An Interesting Island.

Mr. Farrell after leaving Jacksonville went direct to Ft. Myers, Florida but as he did not like the surroundings there especially, decided to go over to Boca Grande on Gasparilla Island. This island is owned in its entirety by the American Agricultural Chemical company, producers of mineral phosphate and the island was acquired because of the deep water passage nearby which makes it possible to load ocean going vessels there. Some idea of the immense business done there will be apparent from the statement that the company loads on an average of seventy-five cars per day of the phosphate all of which is shipped to foreign countries, mostly to Germany.

The quarries where the phosphate occurs are located near Pierce, on Peace river, about eighty miles inland. In 1906 the company began the building of the Charlotte Harbor & Northern railroad to carry the phosphate cars from the quarries or mines to Gasparilla Island. In December of that year the work was practically completed. The year following the Boca Grande hotel was opened and proved within a short time so popular that the company decided to expend $2,000, 000 on the island in beautifying it and making it a resort for people of both the south and north. Last year a new hostelry was determined upon and so Gasparilla Inn was erected at a cost of $150,000, in four months time and was opened to the public January 15th last. Mr. Farrell therefore was one of the early guests at the hotel which he says is complete in every way. Every convenience has been looked out for and the structure would do credit to a great city to say nothing of an island where the total population is but three hundred. The island is only eight feet above sea level but has never been known to overflow. It is formed entirely from shells and sand yet there is a good deal of vegetation and flowers and vegetables grow with wonderful rapidity. The shells of course have been used by the owners in making the driveways and walks over the island and the effect is beautiful indeed.

The fishing is splendid near Boca Grande. Until the hotel facilities of Gasparilla Island were developed fishermen made their headquarters at Tarpin Inn, seven miles away but now at Gasparilla Inn they can be located much nearer the field of operations.

The Legend of Gasparilla.

Gasparilla Island takes its name from a famous pirate of that name whom legend says made the island his rendezvous and after he and his comrades returned from pillaging trips on the high seas their treasure would be buried on this island. A princess captured by Gasparilla himself, the story runs, was long a prisoner on this island and was only released when a vast sum was paid for her ransom. So thoroughly organized was the Gasparilla band of pirates that for years they terrorized the seas and their robberies ran up to millions in value. The story of treasure buried on the island has been almost as alluring as the legend of Captain Kidd and it is a fact that at many different times searching parties and companies have been organized to seek for the millions Gasparilla is said to have placed in iron boxes and buried on this island. Caissons have been sent and are there today showing where he has spent time and money in the search.

Organize Pirate Club.

It was a visit to these caissons and the stories told by a long time resident of the island now tottering with age, that inspired Mr. Farrell along with two other guests at the inn, Messrs. Warfield and Ayresworth to organize the "Pirates club." All the men at the inn attended the meeting called for organization and Mr. Farrell called the company to order and explained the purpose of the organization which is of course for social purposes. The dues are one dollar a year and before any man becomes a member he must do something to show that he is qualified to act the part of a pirate. The annual meeting is to be held March 11th each year and will be marked by a ball or some event of social prominence at Gasparilla Inn.

Enormous Phosphate Resources.

As mentioned above the phosphate produced by this great company is mined or quarried near Pierce. There it is put through crushing machinery and in powdered form is loaded into covered steel cars. These are then hauled down to Boca Grande and run out on trestle work where the cargos by automatically working machinery are dumped onto electrically operated belt conveyors and so unloaded into the waiting vessels. The arrangement is such that the phosphate is weighed as it is being loaded by the conveyor into the vessels. Mainly eastern capital is invested in the enterprise which is doing business on a mammoth scale and they estimate that the supply of phosphate even at the rate of 75 cars daily consumption will last for nearly one hundred years. It is a strange fact that all of this great fertilizer is being shipped to foreign countries instead of being used on United States soil.

Altogether Mr. Farrell enjoyed his recent stay in the south more than any other expedition he has made there as he visited places rich in interesting legends and came into close contact with a business enterprise of mammoth proportions.

Hull.

Funeral services for Thomas Hull were held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the residence on Pennsylvania avenue, in charge of Rev. W. L. Dorgan, pastor of the First Baptist church. Suitable music was furnished and the flowers, which were many and beautiful, were cared for by Mrs. Higg and Mrs. Charles Seymour.

Dean.

Thomas Dean, passed away Wednesday morning at 4 o'clock at his home three miles west of Murrayville following an illness of two weeks duration.

The deceased was born in Chesapeake, England, June 2, 1845 and came to this country with his parents in 1853. He was married twice his first wife being Miss Sarah Mason. They were the parents of two sons, Alvin of Roodhouse and Charles of Manchester. Mrs. Dean passed away in 1886. His second wife, who survives him was Miss Susan Richey and they were married in 1889. There were two sons from this marriage, Samuel and Jesse. For over 30 years Mr. Dean had followed the occupation of a farmer and was a man of upright life and character. He was a member of the West Union Baptist church.

Funeral services will be conducted tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock with burial in Manchester cemetery.

"OUR WIVES" AT THE GRAND.

Unusual interest is attached to the engagement of "Our Wives" the comedy which comes direct from a four months run at the Cort theatre Chicago and which will be produced here at the Grand next Monday night.

A notable cast has been secured by Jos. M. Cates to portray the exceedingly amusing characters in the piece, the two leading roles falling to Henry Kolker and Marie Leonhard, both well known for their work in the New Theatre company. Kaiser Wilhelm has called "Our Wives" the funniest play ever written. His enthusiasm does not seem to be too exuberant for the piece was met with the same success in Austria, Russia and France, that it has attained in Germany, where it has been running for four years.

RESIDENCE CHANGES.

It was stated yesterday that Mr. and Mrs. Alden Brown will soon move from Pine street to the Brown homestead, 1122 West State street. Mrs. C. W. Brown and daughter are to have rooms there and have leased their home on Webster avenue to Mrs. Ada Rantz.

RASPBERRY CREAM

Soak one teaspoonful of gelatin in a half a cup of cold water and dissolve it in a half a cup of scalded milk. Add two-thirds of a cup of sugar and stir steadily. When the mixture begins to stiffen add the whites of two eggs well beaten, one-half pint of cream, diluted with a half a cup of cold milk whipped together. Add a scant tablespoonful of Burnett's Raspberry Extract and tint to the proper shade with Burnett's Fruit Red Color Paste. Pour into a mold and set in a cold place.

WATERS OF ILLINOIS CONTINUE TO RISE

STEADY RAINS BRING STAGE UP TO 20 FEET 10 INCHES.

Commissioners of McGhee District Doubtful as to Strength of Levee—Men Working Continuously Strengthening Weak Places.

Attaining a stage of 22 feet 10 inches Wednesday, the waters of the Illinois river at Meredosia continued to raise, giving rise to more uneasiness on the part of the commissioners of the McGhee levee district on the west side of the river. During the day the raise was one inch, making a total raise of 1 1/4 inches since Monday night, which brings the water a fraction higher than the highest mark attained before the fall of the present flood.

With the raise in the waters several weak places are developing in the levee and the commissioners are doubtful as to whether the dike will be able to withstand the pressure of the water. More than one hundred men and a fleet of barges are being kept at work strengthening the weak spots with sandbags.

Plans of the authorities to send Co. M of Champaign, which is on duty with Co. P and Co. B at Meredosia, home Friday, have been abandoned on account of the raise in the river and all three companies are to be kept on patrol duty indefinitely. Eugene Keefe and Glen Madison of Co. B were relieved from service and have returned home, and Private Smith was released from duty on account of sickness. Wednesday the members of Co. B were treated to seventy pounds of bass by Frank Workman, who is in charge of the Meredosia fishery.

Co. B had two company drills Wednesday, each lasting about one and one-half hours. Lieut. Harmon of Co. B was officer of the day Wednesday and will be relieved this morning at 11 o'clock. Eighteen guardsmen were kept on duty on the levee all night Wednesday, the details of each patrol lasting six hours.

The rains of the past week have proven to many men that the RAIN-COATS sold by FRANK BYRNS are water-proof.

BURLINGTON EMPLOYEE HURT.

Henry B. Dunshower of Beardstown, an employee of the "Q" railroad was severely injured Tuesday while cleaning up a wreck between Franklin and Waverly. He was severely injured about the head as the result of a car door striking him. He was taken to Beardstown where his injuries were dressed.

Youthful Idea In Clothes

A FEW of the far-sighted makers of clothes awoke to the fact that most men want clothes that help them keep cheerful. They found that age wasn't the dividing factor of clothes fashions. Even men along in years want clothes with the spirit of youth. It was to these makers that we went for the charming models we are showing. You'll find the trim, shapely models in the lead, because there's character to them. Garments that hug closely to the neck, fit smoothly across the shoulders and back, tailoring you will find only in the most highly specialized clothes making organizations. You'll find the little touches on ours that are not to be had in other makes.

SOCIAL EVENTS.

Miss Evaline Craven of West Morgan street, gave a party to a number of friends Tuesday evening in honor of Miss Ethel Cox, who is soon to leave for Chicago, where she will make her home. Games and music furnished diversions for the evening and during the hours light refreshments were served.

A reception was given last night by Mr. and Mrs. William Doolin at their new home near Woodson, which was enjoyed by a large number of friends. Mr. Doolin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Doolin, and Miss Hannah Carrigan, daughter of Mrs. Julia Carrigan, were married Wednesday morning at 8 o'clock by Rev. Father McCann, the ceremony taking place in the St. Bartholomew church in Murrayville.

You can secure the style and price that you desire by calling on FRANK BYRNS' Hat Store.

Charles O'Brien, the 17-year-old slayer of Warren DeFrates, will not be given a second trial at the present term of the Sangamon county circuit court. When it was called for the setting of the criminal docket it was continued on motion of his attorneys. A jury which tried O'Brien several months ago failed to agree and the defendant was released on bond, his attorneys contending that the element of manslaughter entered into the evidence sufficiently to justify his release from jail.

See "A SCRAP OF PAPER" Belles Lettres play at I. W. C. Music hall next Monday evening, April 14.

AUTO AND ROAD WAGON COLLIDE ON PINE STREET.

An automobile from the O'Donnell garage and a road wagon, driven by Robert McCarthy, the 16 year old son of James L. McCarthy of 928 West North street, collided on North Pine street Tuesday evening at 6 o'clock. As a result the wagon was badly damaged, the horse injured and the boy considerably bruised on the arm and side of neck. Mr. McCarthy stated last night that the machine going north struck the wagon from the rear, bending both axles, breaking several spokes, also breaking the wagon bed. He also said that the horse was severely injured, being knocked down and forced ahead of the machine thirty feet. Mr. McCarthy stated also that his son was driving within two feet of the east curbing of the street and that William Frye, the driver of the automobile, failed to sound the warning, at the crossing on North street.
